2020 Osher Institutes Membership Study Questionnaire – University of California, Irvine

Dear OLLI at UC Irvine members,

If you haven't yet completed this survey, please consider doing so now. This survey will close on November 5.

Periodically we like to take a demographic snapshot of the OLLI community at programs across the country and OLLI at University of California, Irvine has been selected to participate. The information we gather in this survey will help the administration locally and nationally understand who attends our programs and will also help with future planning. You are being invited to take the survey because you have attended programs or events at your local OLLI.

The survey is online and has 24 questions. It will take you about 10 minutes to complete. Your participation is anonymous since we are not asking for any names or identifying information. Participation is entirely voluntary.

The person in charge of this research study is Steve Thaxton, the Executive Director of the Osher National Resource Center at Northwestern University. If you have questions about this survey you may contact Steve at 312-503-4049 or email address: steve.thaxton@northwestern.edu.

The link to the survey is <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/UCI2020Membership>.

Thank you for considering this opportunity. We appreciate your time and contribution,

Stacey Hart Rivera

SC 206
INFINITE FRUSTRATION:
The Human Side of Science
Wednesdays, November 4, 18
10:00 AM – 12:00 Noon

Click HERE to attend this class.

As a child, did you ever lie on your back and look at the night sky trying to imagine stars beyond the ones you could see, and more stars beyond them, and on and on forever? We have no personal experiences that can serve as an analogue of forever, whether of time or space. The infinitely large and small remain mysteries to human comprehension. We examine the need to cope with the infinite, and the 3,000-year history of Western philosophers, mathematicians and scientists to harness the infinite to meet humanity's intellectual capabilities.

Presenter/Developer: Howard Mirowitz, MBA, Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, manages a private venture fund, teaches at UCI's Merage School of Business.

SC 208
LIVING WELL:
Diabetes Risk Management
(Note new date and time)
