OLLI Board of Directors
Volunteer Opportunity
Starting July 2021

Hurrah for member participation!

We all know that's how OLLI sustains its ability to offer exciting courses and events. If you have been an OLLI member for 3-5+ years and haven't had a chance to volunteer, this is an opportunity for you! OLLI is looking for 3 members to each serve a two-year term of leadership on the Board, starting July 2021. Please call the OLLI office at 949-451-1403 to find out more information.

Welcome new and returning members.

Spring & Summer online classes will be livestreamed through the Remote Learning Center.

If you do not yet have an account for the Remote Learning Center, we recommend that you create your account - PRIOR - to the day of your class.

SC 213

The Making of a Super Athlete

Wednesday, June 2

10:00 AM - 12 Noon

Click HERE to attend this class.

Attendees may join the Zoom session 10 minutes early and chat among one another.

What are some of the physiological limits of athletic performance? What will our sports-hungry society accept as legitimate human enhancements to achieve super performance? What super athletes have we already had the pleasure of cheering on (one is a horse)? Possible answers to these questions as well as what sports will he/she play, additional cerebral requirements in team sports, body types, and social and geographic origins will be discussed.

Presenter(s): Vern Roohk, Ph.D., Physiology and Biochemistry, University of California, Davis

SC 215

Mars Exploration Update

Fridays, June 4 & 11

(*Note: June 18 session cancelled)

10:00 AM - 12 Noon

Click HERE to attend this class.

Attendees may join the Zoom session 10 minutes early and chat among one another.

An unprecedented number of spacecraft are En route to Mars, from the US, China, and the UAE. Missions already in-situ are making groundbreaking observations. If all has gone well, we will learn about planetary weather, hydrology, and whether Mars has harbored-or even still supports-life. Results will be reported from NASA's Insight and Perseverance/Ingenuity missions, China/ Tianwen-1, and UAE /Hope.

Presenter(s)/Developer(s): Michal Peri, Ph.D., NASA Solar System Ambassador, OLLI STEM Committee
