FALL 2022

at University of California, Irvine

Monday, November 14, 2022

We love our OLLI at UCI members!

Being a part of the UCI community has wonderful opportunities for OLLI members, including participating in UCI events with the many schools on campus. Our monthly Outlook newsletter includes UCI events for members to attend and we hope that you are all enjoying the opportunities shared with our OLLI community. Occasionally we are invited to events that do not make it into the Outlook, which is the case this week.

- The UCI School of Biological Sciences has invited OLLI at UCI to attend online with their Dean's Distinguished Lecture Fall 2022 series, titled, Looking to a Future Without Alzheimer's: A Discussion on Research, Recent Advancements, Community Challenges and Next Steps, on Tuesday, November 15th from 4:00 PM - 5:30 PM. To view the event flier, click here. To RSVP for the event, click here.

Our partnerships with UCI is an invaluable benefit to being a OLLI at UCI member and we are proud to share these opportunities with all of you!

Please see our Save the Date below! The Member Appreciation Jolly OLLI Holiday Party is coming up on December 15th! RSVP at olli@uci.edu.

Warmly,

OLLI at UCI

UCI Contemporary Arts Center

$18 (Includes matinee ticket)

at University of California, Irvine

Created in collaboration by
Annie Loui and Dana Johnson
Directed by Annie Loui
Dramaturg: H. Adam

It is 1850 Los Angeles, and the birth of the Pueblo of Los Angeles is helped along by Biddy Mason, a former Mississippi slave and midwife who walks to California behind a wagon train and becomes a healing force in the wild west. "Auntie Mason" becomes a person to be reckoned with: a businesswoman and entrepreneur whose perseverance and commitment as a healer of bodies and souls ensures that her spirit lives on in the City of Angels. Based on a true story.

PETERSEN AUTOMOTIVE MUSEUM

SHORT STORIES

Monday, November 14
10:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Discussion Leader:
Kanga Morgan

Anthology of Short Stories published in May 2009, and available in paper and Kindle, at Amazon.com. "All belong to one world, united in their diversity and ethnicity. And together they have one aim: to involve and move the reader." Be sure to purchase the May 2009 edition, not the more recent one.

In this "limited edition" book discussion group, we'll consider three works of historical fiction set in and around London in different eras.

Members should read the books in advance of the meetings; all titles are available on Amazon in paperback and as e-books.

November 15: Belgravia by Julian Fellowes. The aftermath of events at a fateful ball the night before the Battle of Waterloo in 1815.

BRUSHING UP YOUR SHAKESPEARE

Thursday, November 17
1:30 PM - 3:30 PM

Discussion Leaders:
Beth Mersch

Almost 400 years from publication of Shakespeare's First Folio in 1623, Shakespeare's plays remain a staple in education curriculum and theatre productions.

This interactive group will read aloud two plays of our choosing, discussing the characters, plot and major themes. Woven within this interactive reading will be a discussion of the political and social environment of the period.

Class will use Folger Library editions of the plays, available in paperback and online.

This course will examine the era of the Romans and how their contributions changed the world.

Topics:

- The Etruscans, the rise of Rome
- The Roman Republic, the Punic Wars
- The Roman Empire, the Caesars
- The development of Christianity
- The fall of Rome, The Byzantine Empire

SS 306
Format B/C

UCI COVID-19 VACCINATION POLICY

OLLI at UCI COVID-19 VACCINATION REQUIREMENT

- OLLI will continue to ask members to provide proof of COVID-19 vaccination at the first class meeting or special event a member attends.
- To view UCI's Vaccination Policy, click here.
- If a member (or guest) is not vaccinated, OLLI requests that they attend class online.

To add your digital State of California COVID-19 vaccination record to your phone, fill out the following form: <https://myvaccinerecord.cdph.ca.gov>

UCI COVID-19 MASK POLICY

From the Director of UCI Campus Public Health Response Team, David Souleles:

Face coverings will continue to be recommended indoors, but not required, regardless of vaccination status consistent with current California Department of Public Health \(CDPH\) guidance on the use of face masks in California. Therefore, individuals should feel free to continue to wear face coverings if they desire.

While the indoor face covering requirement is being lifted, the campus will maintain a number of our prevention and surveillance efforts to help control the spread of COVID-19.

- OLLI at UCI will continue to provide face coverings to those that request one.

For the latest COVID-19 information, please continue to visit the UCI Forward website. Thank you for your ongoing compliance with COVID-19 protocols to help with campus health and well-being.
